COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and
that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty
and we want to say that henceforth they
will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and
when they fail to send in their favors
they put us to great inconvenience.

SUNNY SIDE.

S. C. Alexander and young wife
passed through here Monday en
route to Daysboro.

George Buchanan, of Menefee,
and a Mr. Northcutt are visiting
A. T. Brooks during the commencement.

George Brooks and family, of upper Gillmore, were visiting in
this section from Friday till Mon-
day.

Most all of the good old Methodists from this neighborhood, went
to hear Bro. J. J. Dickey preach the baccalaureate sermon Sunday.

Miss Betty Cope and two of the
Miss Hamptons passed through
here Sunday en route to Hazel
Green to attend the commencement.

Misses Mattie Cope, of Breathitt
county, and Myrtle Reed, of White
Oak, and Effie Killgore, of West
Liberty, and Wickliffe Wells, of Menefee, paid Sunny Side a pleasant visit last week.

Our young friend and school-
mate, Kelly Kash, of Stillwater,
was the guest of H. E. Oney Saturday and Sunday. He lost his collar and tie during his stay, but
after a search found out he had
them on.

We never knew what a hard
time the editor and correspondents
had until we became a correspondent for THE HERALD, and trying
at the same time to please everybody. The editor and correspondents who try to do their duty as
best they can are sure to get a
tongue lashing from some few of
the reading public, whose hearts
are as cold as their judgment is
weak, and the very ones who do
the most complaining, are the ones
that do least, or I might say, are
last to lend a helping hand to advance an enterprise of any kind,
and the only remedy that could be
applied to those who are afflicted
is "to practice what they preach."
We know of some who are too mod-
est to subscribe for THE HERALD,
but borrow it from their more generous neighbor to find fault, and
get that part of the news which
suits their whim. It is a hard job
for us to get up a newsy letter,
living where we do; we have nothing to advertise, no millinery store,
no hotel, this is no famous watering resort, only a good well that's
all, and no candidate to report, and
no stones to fling at the editor or
any one who is trying to upbuild
their country and doing all they
can to encourage every enterprise
that tends to advance civilization
and to betterment of society. Now
if we can't report visitors and callers, what on earth can we do? Any
one from a distance don't often
come. We send our items to the editor for him to select what he
thinks best to print, and if he cuts
its tail off at both ends, we don't get mad. For if any one has our
sympathy, and who has their patience tried, it is the printer and
the printer's devil.

SUSIE SUNBEAM.

LANDSAW.

James Lacy and wife, of Lacy
creek took in the meeting at the Baptist church Sunday.

Aunt Rhoda Swango, of Clifty
vicinity, visited friends near this
place Saturday and Sunday.

E. B. Little, of Gillmore, was
the guest of his daughter, Mrs.
Rosa Chambers, Thursday night.

Frank Murphy and wife spent
Saturday and Sunday with Mr.
Murphy's parents in Morgan county.

Mrs. Malissa Peck, whose illness
was noted in last week's paper, is
fast improving, and we hope will
be out soon.

There was church at Old Baptist
Sunday, and a large crowd assembled and strict attention paid to
the preaching.

Mr. Sloan, of Lawrence county,
was in this part Monday. He was
traveling in the interest of a mowing machine company.

Among the crowd at church Sun-
day we saw few from Campton.
Among whom were Mr. and Mrs.
Silas Tutt and their little daughter.

Your writer attended Sunday
school at Landsaw Sunday, and
found a large crowd assembled.
There were four teachers, and they
were doing good work.

A Sunday-school has been organized at Landsaw school house, and
on Sunday last it was broken up.
A guard was appointed by Judge
Center to see that it proceeds all
right.

Mrs. Nannie Center and daughter, Miss Millie, visited Campton
Thursday, it being decoration day
and took nice flowers to deco-
rate the graves of their deceased
friends and relatives.

BEAUTY.

The bilious, tired, nervous man cannot successfully compete with his healthy rival. DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous pills for constipation, will remove the cause of your troubles. H. F. PIERATT.

MORGAN COUNTY.

MAYTOWN MISSIVES.

Rev. John Wilson preached a
very interesting sermon at this place Sunday.

Misses Nannie Day and Lizzie
Pieratt are at Hazel Green this
week taking in the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Childers were
visiting the family of Everitt Little, at Hickory Grove, Saturday
night.

Mrs. Sarah Wills spent Satur-
day and Sunday in Hazel Green,
and took in the contest at the academy Saturday night and reports
having a nice time.

Charlie Lyons and sister, Miss
Ida, of Frenchburg, are visiting
the family of Noah Lyons this
week and attending the entertainment at Hazel Green.

Mrs. Sarah Wills requests all
the ladies to call on her for bargains in hats, etc. She is clearing
out her stock of hats now at cost.
Call and see them, and I am sure
you will get good bargains.

Mrs. Millard Hill, who has been
in Illinois for the past three months,
returned home Wednesday. She
says there is no place like home
and old Kentucky. Her husband
will come back in October where
they will make this their future
home.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Lyons, Charly
Sample and wife, C. F. Kash and
wife, Willie Childers, Mina Nick-
ell, Artie Dye and father, Millard
Riehl, Lenox Swango, Rebecca
Swango, Luther Swango, Ritnan
Patrick and several others of this
place attended the contest at Hazel
Green Saturday night and all report having a nice time.

June 4.

MILDRED.

Danger, disease and death follow
neglect of the bowels. Use DeWitt's
Little Early Risers to regulate them
and you will add years to your life
and life to your years. Easy to take,
never grips. H. F. PIERATT.

EZEL DOTS.

Chas. Duff and wife, of Spencer,
is visiting in town.

S. C. Daniel and little daughter
Mable, of West Liberty, came over
decoration day.

A number of our people are attending Hazel Green academy
commencement.

The West Liberty base ball team
will play against the Ezel boys at
this place next Saturday.

Rev. W. B. Ragan will hold a
quarterly meeting at Pine Grove
next Saturday evening and Sun-
day.

Mrs. D. G. Combs and daughters,
Miss Cora and Mrs. Lucy McGuire,
all of Morehead, were visiting in town last week. We are always glad to have these friends in our midst.

Some benevolent parties in town
gave Uncle John Ratcliffe and Aunt Bettie a good pounding last Thursday night. It would take
up too much space to give the
names of persons and articles donated, but all had a good time,
and these dear old people appreciated and enjoyed the kindness of
their friends.

Memorial day was observed by
all who had friends buried in the cemetery here. A large crowd met
in the afternoon; men and women,
long since forgotten at all other
times, were hunted out and honored on this one day of the year by
offerings from the hearts and the hands of their old friends. Not a single dwelling in that little city
of the dead, but what bore some
precious flower; a sweet order of
fading blossoms filled the air, and
a gentle breeze waved the blue
grass above the silent sleepers.
After all the graves were lovingly
decorated, and friends had talked
to each other of those gone before.
Rev. Johns Adams addressed the
people admonishing them how to
live that some sweet day they
might mingle with loved ones in
our Father's home.

LIZABETH ANN.

James Brown, of Portsmouth, Va., over 90 years of age suffered for
years with a bad sore on his face.
Physicians could not help him. De-Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. H. F. PIERATT.

A Former Citizen Complimented.

Henry L. Godsey, once a silver-
tongued Central College man, is in charge of the stamp vault in the Internal Revenue bureau and has a very responsible position. He frequently carries the keys to over a
hundred millions of dollars worth
of revenue stamps. In a small box
in his office he keeps some stamps
which sell at one thousand dollars
each. They are documentary
stamps, and are about three inches
long by two wide. The other day
he got one order for some eight or
ten of these thousand-dollar
stamps. Uncle Sam handles items
of millions with very little concern, but it requires just as much
red tape to collect forty cents from
him as it does to collect forty millions. If you'd see the papers, and signatures and initials and affidavits
and red ink surrounding a railroad freight bill of $1.25 coming
through military channels, you
would in your ignorance imagine
that the thing was an itemized
account of the labor employed on
one of the pyramids.—Washington
Cor. Danville Advocate.

We want all the new subscribers
we can get, and to all such will
send this paper and the Prairie
Farmer until July 11, 1902, for $1,
which pays for THE HERALD; the
other paper is a gift to induce new subscribers. To all who will re-
new, and are not behind exceeding
four months, we will send both
papers until July 11, 1902, and to
all who are in arrears less than a
year can get THE HERALD alone to July 11, 1902, for $1, and settle up
everything to that date. Now, if anything could be fairer we should
like to hear of it, and NOW is the
time to subscribe.

The X mark after
your name is made
to remind you that your subscription has expired and is an invitation to renew. Unless we hear from you before next issue we
shall conclude you no longer desire the paper, and take off your
name. This applies to EVERY-BODY on our list. If you wish to renew see "$2 for $1 and
then some," on next page.

THE HERALD.

SPENCER COOPER, : : : Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.
THURSDAY, June 6, 1901.

For State Senator--34th District.

HAMPTON.—We are authorized to announce JAS. J. HAMPTON, of Breathitt county, as a candidate for the democratic nomination for State Senator of Breathitt, Owsley, Magoffin, Morgan and Wolfe—the 34th district—subject to action of democratic party.

For Assessor.

We are authorized to announce ELIJAH ROSE, of Stillwater, as a candidate for the office of Assessor, subject only to the will of the people as expressed at the polls on Tuesday, November 5, 1901.

APPROPOS the announcement that Mr. White will soon start a paper in Frenchburg, we wish to say that THE HERALD has heralded the birth of some thirty papers in this section since it started, and has written the obituary of all of them save one. The people of the mountains have not yet realized the importance of supporting a home paper, and until they do it will be a labor of love with each and every man who has the temerity to ink type with a view to making a support upon his venture. THE HERALD has so far withstood the storms of adversity under which all the papers started in this section have succumbed, and with the advent of the Ohio and Kentucky railroad, now nearly completed, we hope to get a better support for it than it has yet enjoyed. But to do this we must depend upon the aid of our citizens in a large measure. When our people go to Lexington or Winchester to buy goods they should always say to the merchant of whom they buy, I saw your ad. in THE HERALD. This will cost them nothing and at the same time help the paper wonderfully, and we hope our friends will think to do this.

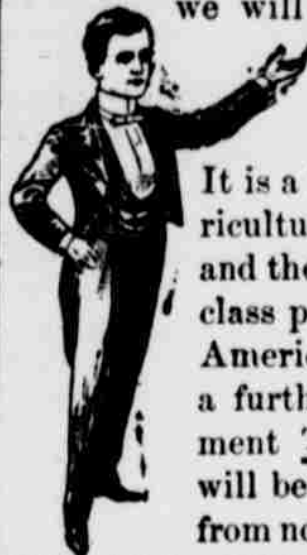

THE following so well covers the matter that we adopt it from the comment column of the Lexington Herald: "The souvenir edition of the Williamstown Courier has reached this office and we unhesitatingly pronounce it one of the finest strokes of enterprise that we have ever seen on the part of a paper published in a small city. It contains fifty pages handsomely printed in two colors on book paper, and gives a complete write-up of the town and Grant county. Handsome half-tone cuts of prominent citizens, business houses, residences, etc., adorn its pages, and in all respects it is a thing of beauty and utility. The people of Williamstown and Grant county should be proud of such an exponent of their interest as is the Courier, and every citizen has doubtless taken an interest in giving this edition a wide circulation."

INCIDENTALLY we learn that Dick White, formerly an attaché of THE HERALD, will soon start a paper at Frenchburg, and if he has not already named the baby we suggest that he call it the Frenchburg Flambeau, which is both euphonious and significant. This makes an innumerable number of times a paper has been started at that little mountain village, and it is to be hoped Mr. White will meet with better success than has attended the ventures heretofore. Dick is a good practical man and if the people accord him a proper support he will give them a paper worthy their support.

$2 FOR $1, THEN SOME!

The Herald for 14 Months, and the Prairie Farmer for 12—Both Dollar-a-Year Papers.

Beginning Thursday, July 11, 1901, THE HERALD will be a 4-page 28-column paper, columns 22 inches long, and all home print. The price will be $1.00 a year strictly in advance. But to induce everybody to subscribe and have all now on our list renew at once we will give THE

PRAIRIE FARMER FREE.

It is a 16-page agricultural weekly, and the best of its class published in America. And as a further inducement THE HERALD will be sent FREE from now until the 11th of July, 1901, to all who subscribe or renew now. The arrangement by which I send the PRAIRIE FARMER free as a premium is for a very limited time only; all who wish to get it should subscribe now. There never was, and probably never will be, such an opportunity to get so much good reading for so little money! Just think of it! THE HERALD for 14 months for only $1, and the Prairie Farmer, also a dollar-a-year-paper, sent to you for 12 months absolutely FREE! It is the opportunity of a lifetime, and if you are wise you will grasp it now.

Bruce Duff, of Spencer, is the guest of John H. Evans and wife.

Rev. J. J. Dickey and wife, of Campton, are the guests of Mrs. Ellen Kash.

John Henry and family, of Morgan, are guests of Mrs. Henry's aunt, Mrs. John Ward.

This has been a very lively week here on account of the commencement and the senatorial convention.

Miss Nannie Bays, sister and brother, of Morgan, are the guests of Mrs. Ellen Kash during commencement.

Mrs. Lou Carter and little daughter, are the guests of Mrs. Carter's father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. Waldeck.

Misses Lizzie Pieratt and Nannie Day, of Maytown, and Hallie Thomas, of St. Helens, are the guests of H. F. Pieratt and wife.

Misses Mattie and Rebecca Hampton, and Bettie Cope, of Breathitt county, are stopping at the dormitory during commencement week.

S. H. Vaughn, photographer of West Liberty, and C. H. Greenwade, of the same place, were in Hazel Green from Sunday until Wednesday evening.

Dr. Gann and wife, of Delaware, Ohio, who have been at Campton for some time in search of health, are now the guests of John H. Pieratt and wife.

BE SURE that your blood is rich and pure. The best blood purifier, enricher and vitalizer is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Be sure to GET HOOD'S.

Charley Sample and wife, nee Rose, of Maytown, were here Saturday and took in the oratorical and declamatory contests at the academy Saturday night.

Eczema, salt rheum, tetter, chafing, ivy poisoning and all skin troubles quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The certain pile cure. H. F. PIERATT.

Dr. Volney Nickell and Miss Lillie Henry, of Ezel, were the guests of John Pieratt and wife over Sunday, and took in the declamatory and oratorical contests Saturday night.

George W. Buchanan, nominee for school superintendent of Menefee county on the democratic ticket, and Bruce Northcutt, of Menefee county, are the guests of Arbury Brooks during commencement week.

A surgical operation is not necessary to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve saves all that expense and never fails. Beware of counterfeits. H. F. PIERATT.

The oratorical contest Saturday night was won by H. Clay Brown, of Morgan county, and the same county captured the declamatory contest in the person of George Amyx. The former lives at White Oak and the latter near Daysboro.

Curtis Rose, who has been attending the Bryant and Stratton business college at Louisville, came home last week and is now clerking in his father's store, John Taulbee having resigned his place.

Mrs. Lou Carter, of Bonny; Miss Myrtle Reed, White Oak; Miss Kathrine McGuire, of West Liberty; Misses Candia Waldeck and sister Goldia, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Taulbee, of Hazel Green, were pleasant callers at THE HERALD office Monday evening.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, Alex Patrick and wife, near Maytown, on Sunday, June 2, 1901, Samuel Cecil Alexander and Mrs. Lillian Nickell. Rev. Johns Adams performing the ceremony. This is the third matrimonial venture for Mr. Alexander and the second time for Mrs. Nickell, which is prima facie evidence that marriage in their eyes is not a failure, and the friends of both the contracting parties wish them much success in this their last venture.

The fifteenth annual session of the Kentucky Chautauqua will be held at Woodland Park, Lexington, Ky., June 26 to July 5. A splendid program has been arranged, that will surpass any yet given. Some of the most notable lecturers and entertainers in America have been engaged. A great musical program will be presented, and many new and special features. The detailed program will be mailed to any address, upon application to Chas. Scott, Business Manager, Lexington, Ky.

Through negligence we last week failed to thank Amos Graham for a bottle of fine rye whiskey which he sent us for our better. Mr. Graham is the leading merchant of Lee City, and as clever a fellow as can be found in a day's journey. As we are now numbered with the total abstinence crowd we did not taste of his rye, but our better says it is as fine as split silk.

A Terrible Explosion
"Of a gasoline stove burned a lady here frightfully," writes N. E. Palmer, of Kirkman, Ia. "The best doctors couldn't heal the running sore that followed, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve entirely cured her." Infallible for cuts, sores, boils, bruises, skin disease and piles. 25c at J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, and S. S. Combs & Son, Campton.

Mrs. W. T. Caskey has the thanks of the editor and his better as well as others of THE HERALD household for a continuous supply of onions and lettuce from her garden. No matter how clever people get they have to get up early and stay late to "out clever" Mrs. Caskey, as evidenced by her liberal supply of "garden sass" in this case.

Didn't Marry for Money.
The Boston man, who lately married a sickly rich young woman, is happy now, for he got Dr. King's New Life Pills, which restored her to perfect health. Infallible for Jaundice, Biliousness, Malaria, Fever and Ague and Liver and Stomach troubles. Gentle but effective. Only 25c at J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, or S. S. Combs & Son, Campton, drug stores.

We would like to have the name and postoffice address of every man now living away from here who formerly lived in either Wolfe or Morgan, so that we may send them a sample of our SEVENTEENTH ANNIVERSARY edition, of which we will print several hundred extra papers. Our friends may render us material aid by sending in lists without delay, as the 2,500 edition of the 28-column paper will be printed July 11, 1901.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK.

Hazel Green Academy Exercises and Entertainment.

The commencement exercises of Hazel Green academy opened on Saturday night at 8:15, with the following program:

- PART I.
YOUNG MEN'S ELEVENTH ANNUAL DECLAMATORY CONTEST.
"The Doom of Claudius and Cynthia"—Ely C. Kash, Landsaw, Ky.
"The Death of a Rousing Rider"—John S. Cisco, White Oak, Ky.
"The Last Drink"—Geo. W. Amyx, Daysboro, Ky.
"The Last Days of Pompeii"—William H. Haney, Ezel, Ky.
"The Death of Arnold"—Eutell Clark, Maytown, Ky.
"The Black Horse and Rider"—Banford M. Mannin, Toller, Ky.
"Lost in the Mountains"—Lawrence Gambill, Caney, Ky.
PIANO DUET—"Scherzo Brilliant"—Misses Crosse and Gevedon.
PART II.
YOUNG MEN'S FIFTH ANNUAL ORATORICAL CONTEST.
"Political Liberty"—Steven G. Sample, Lacy Creek, Ky.
"Men of the Hour"—Jerry M. Mann, Dan, Ky.
"Life is Worth the Living"—H. Clay Brown, White Oak, Ky.
"Our New Century"—J. LeRoy Boggs, Wellington, Ky.
Decision of Judges and Awarding Medals.

In the declamatory contest all the speakers showed that they had studied their pieces well, and the delivery of each was very fine, but the Judges awarded the prize to George Amyx, of Daysboro.

The oratorical contest was, of course, very similar to the declamatory contest except that in the former each speaker had his original ideas to air, and right well did they do so, without exception, but the award went to H. Clay Brown, of White Oak, Morgan county.

On Sunday morning Rev. J. J. Dickey, of Campton, delivered a masterly discourse in his baccalaureate sermon, at the Christian church, and at night Rev. W. I. Buchanan delivered the annual address to the young people, also at the Christian church. On both occasions standing room was at a premium, and everybody seemed pleased with the remarks of both the gentlemen, respectively.

On Monday night the feature was an operetta entitled "Katie Dean; or the Little Rag Picker" in which Mrs. Lottie Smith, wife of Prof. Smith, appeared in the title role. Prof. Smith, Noah Cisco, John Bays, Leroy Boggs and Misses Crosse and Lillian Hurst made up the cast of characters. The former coached the characters of the play, and right well did she do her work judging by the way they played their parts. The play was a pathetic little piece of the serio-comic class, and was quite well received by the audience which filled the academy hall to its utmost capacity.

On Tuesday morning a musicale by the music pupils of 1900-'01 was given, and the applause after the rendition of some of the more difficult pieces was deafening, which should be accepted by Miss Crosse as exceptionally complimentary. At 8:15 on the same evening came the declamatory contest of the young ladies, as per program:

- YOUNG WOMEN'S TENTH ANNUAL DECLAMATORY CONTEST.
"Lady Maude's Oath"—Miss Susie Long, Hazel Green, Ky.
"A Woman's Vengeance"—Miss Effie Kilgore, West Liberty, Ky.
"Death Set Him Free"—Miss Cordia Brenneman, Hazel Green.
PIANO SOLO—Gaiety by F. R. Webb—Miss Lillie Swango.
"The Confessional"—Miss Nevada Nickell, Hazel Green, Ky.
"The Last Shot"—Miss Dora Swango, Hazel Green, Ky.
"Zib—The Mountain Guide"—Miss Maude Taulbee, Daysboro, Ky.
"KILL"—Miss Nettie Payne, Bowen, Ky.
ORGAN SOLO—"La Diabolique"—Miss Corda Adams.
Decision of Judges and Awarding Medal.

NOTES.
The judges in the oratorical contest were Rev. W. L. Buchanan, of West Liberty; Mrs. J. J. Dickey, of Campton, and W. O. Mize, and they also judged the declamatory contest. The same persons also judged the young ladies' declamatory contest, with the exception of Rev. Buchanan, whose place was filled by Rev. Frank M. Tinder, of Carlisle.

Miss Dora Swango won the medal, but all the girls did remarkably well. Indeed it was the universal opinion that so many good speakers among young ladies was never before assembled, and Miss Nevada Nickell was a close second choice.

The watch given for the best deportment in and out of school, best average, and in fact, best in everything, was awarded to Miss

Mattie Cord in the female department, while Asa Rose, of Lee City, stood highest among the young men.

Prof. Cord and his assistants deserve great credit for the manner in which everything passed off, and next week we will have more to say of their efforts.

Change From 75 Years of Age to 16.
Mr. Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky.: I purchased some of the Vitae-Ore from you in the latter part of March, and after taking about a half pint of the Vitae-Ore Elixir my nerves were as steady as when I was 16 years of age, and I am now past 75. For more than a year I had been trying all the patent medicines and nostrums I could hear of to build myself up, but nothing did me any good until I used Vitae-Ore, which my wife brought me from your house. After using it a week I went out and did three days as hard work as I have done in 25 years and I was not more fatigued than I was 25 years ago over the same work. It is the greatest medicine in the world, and I want everybody in the mountains to know what it did for me so they may try it. Hoping every one who has that tired feeling incident to old age will buy Vitae-Ore of you and give it a fair trial, I remain, thankfully yours for putting me on to this remedy, JAMES A. LACY.

I can vouch for every word Mr. Lacy says in the above. I am his wife and bought the medicine of Mr. Cooper for him, though I did not have much faith in it, because we had tried so many things that did no good. I have also used Vitae-Ore, and am stronger and in better health than for years, which I attribute to its use. (MRS.) SOUHEY LACY.

Dyspeptics cannot be long lived, because to live requires nourishment. Food is not nourishing until it is digested. A disordered stomach cannot digest food, it must have assistance. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests all kinds of food without aid from the stomach, allowing it to rest and regain its natural functions. Its elements are exactly the same as the natural digestive fluids and it simply can't help but do you good. H. F. PIERATT.

"Never Burn a Candle at Both Ends"
Don't go on drawing vitality from the blood without doing something to replace it. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives nerve, mental and digestive strength by enriching and vitalizing the blood. Hood's Pills are mild and non-irritating.

A Precocious Prodigy.
Mrs. Nanny Cravens, of McCausey, is a visitor here during commencement week and with her she has her three step children, among whom is one of the most precocious prodigies this state or any other, perhaps, has ever produced. We refer to Charley, who is 32 inches high; weighs 34 pounds, and is 2½ years old. He calls himself "Kash" Cravens, having adopted the Kash from his step-brother Robert, for whom he has evinced quite a fondness. He is dressed in knickerbockers and cap, and reminds one more of an English sparrow than a boy so little is he, and so very small does he appear in attire. He has an old face and is an exceptionally bright youth. He is as free with a stranger as an acquaintance, and to all he has pleasure in announcing "I am a Campbellite and a democrat," and, of course, is very popular.

Positively there will be no work done at my gallery after Thursday, 18th inst. Better come today or tomorrow or some other old day. M. B. TAYLOR.

The Convention met Wednesday, as per call, and a controversy coming up over the seating of a contested delegation from Magoffin, Breathitt county nominated Judge Hampton and elected him, after which she withdrew, and refused to further participate. The Lykins-Stamper wing of the convention continued in session for an hour without doing anything and adjourned to 8 o'clock Thursday morning, when it again met, and after taking several ballots adjourned to 1 p. m. The result was the nomination of Howard Stamper, after which the sine die adjournment.

D. Glenn Subgett nominated Mr. Stamper, and his speech will be published with the proceedings in next week's issue.

Misses Anna Belle Combs, of Campton; Lillie Rose, of Lacy creek; Cora Combs, of Morehead, and Beulah Thomas, of West Liberty, are guests of H. F. Pieratt and wife.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

CURRENT EVENTS.

A bunko man has gotten the best of a Chicago alderman. "When Greek meets Greek, then comes the tug of war."

The Scotch may say mean things about Mr. Carnegie's princely gift but they'll take it, all the same—and glad to get it.

The Santiago medals, it is said, are to have Sampson's bust upon them, probably in token of the battle he didn't win.

Really, we can think of a good many things better worth the while of colored divines than making faces at Booker Washington.

The congress of mothers' at Columbus is reported to have been a dead failure. There were too many old maids among the delegates.

Now that the islands have been annexed by treaty and divorced by act of congress, perhaps justice may spruce up and get to work on Neeley and Rathbone.

"No thief e're felt the halter draw, with good opinion of the law." The same may be said of Captain Carter's business associates in the Savannah steals.

Now that Mr. Hanna has joined the G. A. R., there is some reason to believe that that organization will have some little influence with the president.

The pension office says it will investigate the "puller in" scandal practised on the returning volunteers by pension agents in San Francisco. It is about time.

It is singular how unanimous Iowa is in favor of Mr. Conger for Minister to China—almost unanimous, as the administration is for his election as governor of Iowa.

Those republican papers who scolded the president so for his abandonment of "plain duty" can now return to their original position and wage war for free trade with Porto Rico.

So Lawson is to race after all! We congratulate him and the country, but we cannot congratulate the snobbish New York Yacht Club on the way in which the agreement was brought about.

Justice Brown seems to have held the balance of power, deciding for the government on one set of cases and against it on the other. Still, his reasoning is clear and his position easily understandable.

The colonial question is settled at last. Porto Rico and the Philippines are as much a part of the United States as Arizona and Oklahoma, but there is nothing to prevent any or all of these from being barred out by tariff laws, differing from those in force in the states. So says the Supreme Court.

Secretary Squiers of the Pekin legation seems called upon to make a few remarks, since an army court has declared that his charges against Captain Hall were chiefly due to spite work and further that he has been blowing his own trumpet in a way not warranted by the facts.

Even those who agree with Mr. McLaurin, wonder why he does not come out frankly under his true colors as a republican instead of fighting under the ensign of a party whose doctrines he repudiates.

Mark Hanna goes on joining things. The latest to acquire him is the Cleveland street railway Employers' association. The first thing Mark knows, he will be forced to become president in spite of himself.

Seven Years in Bed.

"Will wonders never cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, and S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton, drug stores. Only 50 cts.

Healthy Mothers

Few mothers are healthy, because their duties are so exacting. The anxiety of pregnancy, the shock of childbirth, and the care of young children, are severe trials on any woman. But with Wine of Cardui within her grasp, every mother—every woman in the land—can pay the debt of personal health she owes her loved ones. Do you want robust health with all its privileges and pleasures? Wine of Cardui will give it to you.

WINE OF CARDUI

strengthens the female organs and invigorates weakened functions. For every female ill or weakness it is the best medicine made. Ask your druggist for $1.00 bottle Wine of Cardui, and take no substitute under any circumstances.

Mrs. Edwin Cross, Gomer, Mich.: "When I commenced using Wine of Cardui I was hardly able to walk across the house. Two weeks after I walked half a mile and picked strawberries. When my other child was born I suffered with labor pains 24 hours, and had to raise him on a bottle because I had no milk. After using the Wine during pregnancy this time, I gave birth last month to a baby girl, and was in labor only two hours, with but little pain, and I have plenty of milk. For this great improvement in my health I thank God and Wine of Cardui."

COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by
Monday night of each week, and
that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty
and we want to say that henceforth they
will not receive papers except for the
week they have news letters. We are
dependent upon them for the news and
when they fail to send in their favors
they put us to great inconvenience.

SUNNY SIDE.

S. C. Alexander and young wife
passed through here Monday en
route to Daysboro.

George Buchanan, of Menefee,
and a Mr. Northcutt are visiting
A. T. Brooks during the commence-
ment.

George Brooks and family, of
upper Gillmore, were visiting in
this section from Friday till Mon-
day.

Most all of the good old Methodists from this neighborhood, went
to hear Bro. J. J. Dickey preach the
baccalaureate sermon Sunday.

Miss Betty Cope and two of the
Miss Hamptons passed through
here Sunday en route to Hazel
Green to attend the commence-
ment.

Misses Mattie Cope, of Breathitt
county, and Myrtle Reed, of White
Oak, and Effie Killgore, of West
Liberty, and Wickliffe Wells, of Menefee, paid Sunny Side a pleasant visit last week.

Our young friend and school-
mate, Kelly Kash, of Stillwater,
was the guest of H. E. Oney Saturday and Sunday. He lost his
collar and tie during his stay, but
after a search found out he had
them on.

We never knew what a hard
time the editor and correspondents
had until we became a correspondent for THE HERALD, and trying
at the same time to please every-
body. The editor and correspon-
dents who try to do their duty as
best they can are sure to get a
tongue lashing from some few of
the reading public, whose hearts
are as cold as their judgment is
weak, and the very ones who do
the most complaining, are the ones
that do least, or I might say, are
last to lend a helping hand to advance an enterprise of any kind,
and the only remedy that could be
applied to those who are afflicted
is "to practice what they preach."
We know of some who are too mod-
est to subscribe for THE HERALD,
but borrow it from their more generous neighbor to find fault, and
get that part of the news which
suits their whim. It is a hard job
for us to get up a newsy letter,
living where we do; we have noth-
ing to advertise, no millinery store,
no hotel, this is no famous water-
ing resort, only a good well that's
all, and no candidate to report, and
no stones to fling at the editor or
any one who is trying to upbuild
their country and doing all they
can to encourage every enterprise
that tends to advance civilization
and to betterment of society. Now
if we can't report visitors and call-
ers, what on earth can we do? Any
one from a distance don't often
come. We send our items to the
editor for him to select what he
thinks best to print, and if he cuts
its tail off at both ends, we don't
get mad. For if any one has our
sympathy, and who has their pa-
tience tried, it is the printer and
the printer's devil.

SUSIE SUNBEAM.

LANDSAW.

James Lacy and wife, of Lacy
creek took in the meeting at the Baptist church Sunday.

Aunt Rhoda Swango, of Clifty
vicinity, visited friends near this
place Saturday and Sunday.

E. B. Little, of Gillmore, was
the guest of his daughter, Mrs.
Rosa Chambers, Thursday night.

Frank Murphy and wife spent
Saturday and Sunday with Mr.
Murphy's parents in Morgan county.

Mrs. Malissa Peck, whose illness
was noted in last week's paper, is
fast improving, and we hope will
be out soon.

There was church at Old Baptist
Sunday, and a large crowd assem-
bled and strict attention paid to
the preaching.

Mr. Sloan, of Lawrence county,
was in this part Monday. He was
traveling in the interest of a mow-
ing machine company.

Among the crowd at church Sun-
day we saw few from Campton.
Among whom were Mr. and Mrs.
Silas Tutt and their little daughter.

Your writer attended Sunday
school at Landsaw Sunday, and
found a large crowd assembled.
There were four teachers, and they
were doing good work.

A Sunday-school has been organized at Landsaw school house, and
on Sunday last it was broken up.
A guard was appointed by Judge
Center to see that it proceeds all
right.

Mrs. Nannie Center and daughter, Miss Millie, visited Campton
Thursday, it being decoration day
and took nice flowers to deco-
rate the graves of their deceased
friends and relatives.

MORGAN COUNTY.

MAYTOWN MISSIVES.

Rev. John Wilson preached a
very interesting sermon at this
place Sunday.

Misses Nannie Day and Lizzie
Pieratt are at Hazel Green this
week taking in the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Childers were
visiting the family of Everitt Little, at Hickory Grove, Saturday
night.

Mrs. Sarah Wills spent Satur-
day and Sunday in Hazel Green,
and took in the contest at the academy Saturday night and reports
having a nice time.

Charlie Lyons and sister, Miss
Ida, of Frenchburg, are visiting
the family of Noah Lyons this
week and attending the entertainment at Hazel Green.

Mrs. Sarah Wills requests all
the ladies to call on her for bar-
gains in hats, etc. She is clearing
out her stock of hats now at cost.
Call and see them, and I am sure
you will get good bargains.

Mrs. Millard Hill, who has been
in Illinois for the past three months,
returned home Wednesday. She
says there is no place like home
and old Kentucky. Her husband
will come back in October where
they will make this their future
home.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Lyons, Charly
Sample and wife, C. F. Kash and
wife, Willie Childers, Mina Nick-
ell, Artie Dye and father, Millard
Riehl, Lenox Swango, Rebecca
Swango, Luther Swango, Ritnan
Patrick and several others of this
place attended the contest at Hazel
Green Saturday night and all report having a nice time.

MILDRED.

Danger, disease and death follow
neglect of the bowels. Use DeWitt's
Little Early Risers to regulate them
and you will add years to your life
and life to your years. Easy to take,
never grips. H. F. PIERATT.

EZEL DOTS.

Chas. Duff and wife, of Spencer,
is visiting in town.

S. C. Daniel and little daughter
Mable, of West Liberty, came over
decoration day.

A number of our people are attending Hazel Green academy
commencement.

The West Liberty base ball team
will play against the Ezel boys at
this place next Saturday.

Rev. W. B. Ragan will hold a
quarterly meeting at Pine Grove
next Saturday evening and Sun-
day.

Mrs. D. G. Combs and daughters,
Miss Cora and Mrs. Lucy McGuire,
all of Morehead, were visiting in
town last week. We are always
glad to have these friends in our
midst.

Some benevolent parties in town
gave Uncle John Ratcliffe and
Aunt Bettie a good pounding last
Thursday night. It would take
up too much space to give the
names of persons and articles do-
nated, but all had a good time,
and these dear old people appreciated and enjoyed the kindness of
their friends.

Memorial day was observed by
all who had friends buried in the
cemetery here. A large crowd met
in the afternoon; men and women,
long since forgotten at all other
times, were hunted out and honor-
ed on this one day of the year by
offerings from the hearts and the hands of their old friends. Not a
single dwelling in that little city
of the dead, but what bore some
precious flower; a sweet order of
fading blossoms filled the air, and
a gentle breeze waved the blue
grass above the silent sleepers.
After all the graves were lovingly
decorated, and friends had talked
to each other of those gone before.
Rev. Johns Adams addressed the
people admonishing them how to
live that some sweet day they
might mingle with loved ones in
our Father's home.

A Former Citizen Complimented.

Henry L. Godsey, once a silver-
tongued Central College man, is in
charge of the stamp vault in the Internal Revenue bureau and has a
very responsible position. He frequently carries the keys to over a
hundred millions of dollars worth
of revenue stamps. In a small box
in his office he keeps some stamps
which sell at one thousand dollars
each. They are documentary
stamps, and are about three inches
long by two wide. The other day
he got one order for some eight or
ten of these thousand-dollar
stamps. Uncle Sam handles items
of millions with very little concern, but it requires just as much
red tape to collect forty cents from
him as it does to collect forty millions. If you'd see the papers, and
signatures and initials and affidavits
and red ink surrounding a rail-
road freight bill of $1.25 coming
through military channels, you
would in your ignorance imagine
that the thing was an itemized
account of the labor employed on
one of the pyramids.—Washington
Cor. Danville Advocate.

We want all the new subscribers
we can get, and to all such will
send this paper and the Prairie
Farmer until July 11, 1902, for $1,
which pays for THE HERALD; the
other paper is a gift to induce new
subscribers. To all who will re-
new, and are not behind exceeding
four months, we will send both
papers until July 11, 1902, and to
all who are in arrears less than a
year can get THE HERALD alone to
July 11, 1902, for $1, and settle up
everything to that date. Now, if
anything could be fairer we should
like to hear of it, and NOW is the
time to subscribe.

The X mark after
your name is made
to remind you that your subscription has expired and is an invitation to renew. Unless we hear
from you before next issue we
shall conclude you no longer de-
sire the paper, and take off your
name. This applies to EVERY-
BODY on our list. If you
wish to renew see "$2 for $1 and
then some," on next page.

THE HERALD.

SPENCER COOPER, : : : Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.
THURSDAY, June 6, 1901.

For State Senator--34th District.

HAMPTON.—We are authorized to announce JAS. J. HAMPTON, of Breathitt county, as a candidate for the democratic nomination for State Senator of Breathitt, Owsley, Magoffin, Morgan and Wolfe—the 34th district—subject to action of democratic party.

For Assessor.

We are authorized to announce ELIJAH ROSE, of Stillwater, as a candidate for the office of Assessor, subject only to the will of the people as expressed at the polls on Tuesday, November 5, 1901.

APPROPOS the announcement that Mr. White will soon start a paper in Frenchburg, we wish to say that THE HERALD has heralded the birth of some thirty papers in this section since it started, and has written the obituary of all of them save one. The people of the mountains have not yet realized the importance of supporting a home paper, and until they do it will be a labor of love with each and every man who has the temerity to ink type with a view to making a support upon his venture. THE HERALD has so far withstood the storms of adversity under which all the papers started in this section have succumbed, and with the advent of the Ohio and Kentucky railroad, now nearly completed, we hope to get a better support for it than it has yet enjoyed. But to do this we must depend upon the aid of our citizens in a large measure. When our people go to Lexington or Winchester to buy goods they should always say to the merchant of whom they buy, I saw your ad. in THE HERALD. This will cost them nothing and at the same time help the paper wonderfully, and we hope our friends will think to do this.

INCIDENTALLY we learn that Dick White, formerly an attaché of THE HERALD, will soon start a paper at Frenchburg, and if he has not already named the baby we suggest that he call it the Frenchburg Flambeau, which is both euphonious and significant. This makes an innumerable number of times a paper has been started at that little mountain village, and it is to be hoped Mr. White will meet with better success than has attended the ventures heretofore. Dick is a good practical man and if the people accord him a proper support he will give them a paper worthy their support.

$2 FOR $1, THEN SOME!

The Herald for 14 Months, and the Prairie Farmer for 12—Both Dollar-a-Year Papers.

Beginning Thursday, July 11, 1901, THE HERALD will be a 4-page 28-column paper, columns 22 inches long, and all home print. The price will be $1.00 a year strictly in advance. But to induce everybody to subscribe and have all now on our list renew at once we will give THE

PRAIRIE FARMER FREE.

It is a 16-page agricultural weekly, and the best of its class published in America. And as a further inducement THE HERALD will be sent FREE from now until the 11th of July, 1901, to all who subscribe or renew now. The arrangement by which I send the PRAIRIE FARMER free as a premium is for a very limited time only; all who wish to get it should subscribe now. There never was, and probably never will be, such an opportunity to get so much good reading for so little money! Just think of it! THE HERALD for 14 months for only $1, and the Prairie Farmer, also a dollar-a-year-paper, sent to you for 12 months absolutely FREE! It is the opportunity of a lifetime, and if you are wise you will grasp it now.

"A few months ago, food which late for breakfast would not remain on my stomach for half an hour. THE HERALD.

Bruce Duff, of Spencer, is the guest of John H. Evans and wife.

Rev. J. J. Dickey and wife, of Campton, are the guests of Mrs. Ellen Kash.

John Henry and family, of Morgan, are guests of Mrs. Henry's aunt, Mrs. John Ward.

This has been a very lively week here on account of the commencement and the senatorial convention.

Miss Nannie Bays, sister and brother, of Morgan, are the guests of Mrs. Ellen Kash during commencement.

Mrs. Lou Carter and little daughter, are the guests of Mrs. Carter's father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. Waldeck.

Misses Lizzie Pieratt and Nannie Day, of Maytown, and Hallie Thomas, of St. Helens, are the guests of H. F. Pieratt and wife.

Misses Mattie and Rebecca Hampton, and Bettie Cope, of Breathitt county, are stopping at the dormitory during commencement week.

S. H. Vaughn, photographer of West Liberty, and C. H. Greenwade, of the same place, were in Hazel Green from Sunday until Wednesday evening.

Dr. Gann and wife, of Delaware, Ohio, who have been at Campton for some time in search of health, are now the guests of John H. Pieratt and wife.

BE SURE that your blood is rich and pure. The best blood purifier, enricher and vitalizer is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Be sure to GET HOOD'S.

Charley Sample and wife, nee Rose, of Maytown, were here Saturday and took in the oratorical and declamatory contests at the academy Saturday night.

Eczema, salt rheum, tetter, chafing, ivy poisoning and all skin troubles quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The certain pile cure. H. F. PIERATT.

Dr. Volney Nickell and Miss Lillie Henry, of Ezel, were the guests of John Pieratt and wife over Sunday, and took in the declamatory and oratorical contests Saturday night.

George W. Buchanan, nominee for school superintendent of Menefee county on the democratic ticket, and Bruce Northcutt, of Menefee county, are the guests of Arbury Brooks during commencement week.

A surgical operation is not necessary to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve saves all that expense and never fails. Beware of counterfeits. H. F. PIERATT.

The oratorical contest Saturday night was won by H. Clay Brown, of Morgan county, and the same county captured the declamatory contest in the person of George Amyx. The former lives at White Oak and the latter near Daysboro.

Curtis Rose, who has been attending the Bryant and Stratton business college at Louisville, came home last week and is now clerking in his father's store, John Taulbee having resigned his place.

Mrs. Lou Carter, of Bonny; Miss Myrtle Reed, White Oak; Miss Kathrine McGuire, of West Liberty; Misses Candia Waldeck and sister Goldia, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Taulbee, of Hazel Green, were pleasant callers at THE HERALD office Monday evening.

This is the third matrimonial venture for Mr. Alexander and the second time for Mrs. Nickell, which is prima facie evidence that marriage in their eyes is not a failure, and the friends of both the contracting parties wish them much success in this their last venture.

The fifteenth annual session of the Kentucky Chautauqua will be held at Woodland Park, Lexington, Ky., June 26 to July 5. A splendid program has been arranged, that will surpass any yet given. Some of the most notable lecturers and entertainers in America have been engaged. A great musical program will be presented, and many new and special features. The detailed program will be mailed to any address, upon application to Chas. Scott, Business Manager, Lexington, Ky.

Through negligence we last week failed to thank Amos Graham for a bottle of fine rye whiskey which he sent us for our better. Mr. Graham is the leading merchant of Lee City, and as clever a fellow as can be found in a day's journey. As we are now numbered with the total abstinence crowd we did not taste of his rye, but our better says it is as fine as split silk.

A Terrible Explosion
"Of a gasoline stove burned a lady here frightfully," writes N. E. Palmer, of Kirkman, Ia. COMMENCEMENT WEEK.

Hazel Green Academy Exercises and Entertainment.

The commencement exercises of Hazel Green academy opened on Saturday night at 8:15, with the following program:

PART I.
YOUNG MEN'S ELEVENTH ANNUAL DECLAMATORY CONTEST.

"The Doom of Claudius and Cynthia"—Ely C. Kash, Landsaw, Ky.
"The Death of a Rousing Rider"—John S. Cisco, White Oak, Ky.
"The Last Drink"—Geo. W. Amyx, Daysboro, Ky.
"The Last Days of Pompeii"—William H. Haney, Ezel, Ky.
"The Death of Arnold"—Eutell Clark, Maytown, Ky.
"The Black Horse and Rider"—Banford M. Mannin, Toller, Ky.
"Lost in the Mountains"—Lawrence Gambill, Caney, Ky.
PIANO DUET—"Scherzo Brilliant"—Misses Crosse and Gevedon.

PART II.
YOUNG MEN'S FIFTH ANNUAL ORATORICAL CONTEST.

"Political Liberty"—Steven G. Sample, Lacy Creek, Ky.
"Men of the Hour"—Jerry M. Mann, Dan, Ky.
"Life is Worth the Living"—H. Clay Brown, White Oak, Ky.
"Our New Century"—J. LeRoy Boggs, Wellington, Ky.
Decision of Judges and Awarding Medals.

In the declamatory contest all the speakers showed that they had studied their pieces well, and the delivery of each was very fine, but the Judges awarded the prize to George Amyx, of Daysboro.

The oratorical contest was, of course, very similar to the declamatory contest except that in the former each speaker had his original ideas to air, and right well did they do so, without exception, but the award went to H. Clay Brown, of White Oak, Morgan county.

On Sunday morning Rev. J. J. Dickey, of Campton, delivered a masterly discourse in his baccalaureate sermon, at the Christian church, and at night Rev. W. I. Buchanan delivered the annual address to the young people, also at the Christian church. On both occasions standing room was at a premium, and everybody seemed pleased with the remarks of both the gentlemen, respectively.

On Monday night the feature was an operetta entitled "Katie Dean; or the Little Rag Picker" in which Mrs. Lottie Smith, wife of Prof. Smith, appeared in the title role. Prof. Smith, Noah Cisco, John Bays, Leroy Boggs and Misses Crosse and Lillian Hurst made up the cast of characters. The former coached the characters of the play, and right well did she do her work judging by the way they played their parts. The play was a pathetic little piece of the serio-comic class, and was quite well received by the audience which filled the academy hall to its utmost capacity.

On Tuesday morning a musicale by the music pupils of 1900-'01 was given, and the applause after the rendition of some of the more difficult pieces was deafening, which should be accepted by Miss Crosse as exceptionally complimentary. At 8:15 on the same evening came the declamatory contest of the young ladies, as per program:

YOUNG WOMEN'S TENTH ANNUAL DECLAMATORY CONTEST.

"Lady Maude's Oath"—Miss Susie Long, Hazel Green, Ky.
"A Woman's Vengeance"—Miss Effie Kilgore, West Liberty, Ky.
"Death Set Him Free"—Miss Cordia Brennehan, Hazel Green.
PIANO SOLO—Gaiety by F. K. Webb—Miss Lillie Swango
"The Confessional"—Miss Nevada Nickell, Hazel Green, Ky.
"The Last Shot"—Miss Dora Swango, Hazel Green, Ky.
"Zib—The Mountain Guide"—Miss Maude Taulbee, Daysboro, Ky.
"KILL"—Miss Nettie Payne, Bowen, Ky.
ORGAN SOLO—"La Diabolique"—Miss Corda Adams.
Decision of Judges and Awarding Medal.

NOTES.
The judges in the oratorical contest were Rev. W. L. Buchanan, of West Liberty; Mrs. J. J. Dickey, of Campton, and W. O. Mize, and they also judged the declamatory contest. The same persons also judged the young ladies' declamatory contest, with the exception of Rev. Buchanan, whose place was filled by Rev. Frank M. Tinder, of Carlisle.

Miss Dora Swango won the medal, but all the girls did remarkably well. Indeed it was the universal opinion that so many good speakers among young ladies was never before assembled, and Miss Nevada Nickell was a close second choice.

The watch given for the best deportment in and out of school, best average, and in fact, best in everything, was awarded to Miss

Mattie Cord in the female department, while Asa Rose, of Lee City, stood highest among the young men.

Prof. Cord and his assistants deserve great credit for the manner in which everything passed off, and next week we will have more to say of their efforts.

Change From 75 Years of Age to 16.

Mr. Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky.: I purchased some of the Vitae-Ore from you in the latter part of March, and after taking about a half pint of the Vitae-Ore Elixir my nerves were as steady as when I was 16 years of age, and I am now past 75. For more than a year I had been trying all the patent medicines and nostrums I could hear of to build myself up, but nothing did me any good until I used Vitae-Ore, which my wife brought me from your house. After using it a week I went out and did three days as hard work as I have done in 25 years and I was not more fatigued than I was 25 years ago over the same work. It is the greatest medicine in the world, and I want everybody in the mountains to know what it did for me so they may try it. Hoping every one who has that tired feeling incident to old age will buy Vitae-Ore of you and give it a fair trial, I remain, thankfully yours for putting me on to this remedy, JAMES A. LACY.

I can vouch for every word Mr. Lacy says in the above. I am his wife and bought the medicine of Mr. Cooper for him, though I did not have much faith in it, because we had tried so many things that did no good. I have also used Vitae-Ore, and am stronger and in better health than for years, which I attribute to its use. (MRS.) SOUHEY LACY.

Dyspeptics cannot be long lived, because to live requires nourishment. Food is not nourishing until it is digested. A disordered stomach cannot digest food, it must have assistance. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests all kinds of food without aid from the stomach, allowing it to rest and regain its natural functions. Its elements are exactly the same as the natural digestive fluids and it simply can't help but do you good. H. F. PIERATT.

"Never Burn a Candle at Both Ends"
Don't go on drawing vitality from the blood without doing something to replace it. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives nerve, mental and digestive strength by enriching and vitalizing the blood. Hood's Pills are mild and non-irritating.

A Precocious Prodigy.

Mrs. Nanny Cravens, of McCausey, is a visitor here during commencement week and with her she has her three step children, among whom is one of the most precocious prodigies this state or any other, perhaps, has ever produced. We refer to Charley, who is 32 inches high; weighs 34 pounds, and is 2½ years old. He calls himself "Kash" Cravens, having adopted the Kash from his step-brother Robert, for whom he has evinced quite a fondness. He is dressed in knickerbockers and cap, and reminds one more of an English sparrow than a boy so little is he, and so very small does he appear in attire. He has an old face and is an exceptionally bright youth. He is as free with a stranger as an acquaintance, and to all he has pleasure in announcing "I am a Campbellite and a democrat," and, of course, is very popular.

Positively there will be no work done at my gallery after Thursday, 18th inst. Better come today or tomorrow or some other old day. M. B. TAYLOR.

The Convention met Wednesday, as per call, and a controversy coming up over the seating of a contested delegation from Magoffin, Breathitt county nominated Judge Hampton and elected him, after which she withdrew, and refused to further participate. The Lykins-Stamper wing of the convention continued in session for an hour without doing anything and adjourned to 8 o'clock Thursday morning, when it again met, and after taking several ballots adjourned to 1 p. m. The result was the nomination of Howard Stamper, after which the sine die adjournment.

D. Glenn Subgett nominated Mr. Stamper, and his speech will be published with the proceedings in next week's issue.

Misses Anna Belle Combs, of Campton; Lillie Rose, of Lacy creek; Cora Combs, of Morehead, and Beulah Thomas, of West Liberty, are guests of H. F. Pieratt and wife.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

CURRENT EVENTS.

A bunko man has gotten the best of a Chicago alderman. "When Greek meets Greek, then comes the tug of war."

The Scotch may say mean things about Mr. Carnegie's princely gift but they'll take it, all the same—and glad to get it.

The Santiago medals, it is said, are to have Sampson's bust upon them, probably in token of the battle he didn't win.

Really, we can think of a good many things better worth the while of colored divines than making faces at Booker Washington.

The congress of mothers' at Columbus is reported to have been a dead failure. There were too many old maids among the delegates.

Now that the islands have been annexed by treaty and divorced by act of congress, perhaps justice may spruce up and get to work on Neeley and Rathbone.

"No thief e're felt the halter draw, with good opinion of the law." The same may be said of Captain Carter's business associates in the Savannah steals.

Now that Mr. Hanna has joined the G. A. R., there is some reason to believe that that organization will have some little influence with the president.

The pension office says it will investigate the "puller in" scandal practised on the returning volunteers by pension agents in San Francisco. It is about time.

It is singular how unanimous Iowa is in favor of Mr. Conger for Minister to China—almost unanimous, as the administration is for his election as governor of Iowa.

Those republican papers who scolded the president so for his abandonment of "plain duty" can now return to their original position and wage war for free trade with Porto Rico.

So Lawson is to race after all! We congratulate him and the country, but we cannot congratulate the snobbish New York Yacht Club on the way in which the agreement was brought about.

Justice Brown seems to have held the balance of power, deciding for the government on one set of cases and against it on the other. Still, his reasoning is clear and his position easily understandable.

The colonial question is settled at last. Porto Rico and the Philippines are as much a part of the United States as Arizona and Oklahoma, but there is nothing to prevent any or all of these from being barred out by tariff laws, differing from those in force in the states. So says the Supreme Court.

Secretary Squiers of the Pekin legation seems called upon to make a few remarks, since an army court has declared that his charges against Captain Hall were chiefly due to spite work and further that he has been blowing his own trumpet in a way not warranted by the facts.

Even those who agree with Mr. McLaurin, wonder why he does not come out frankly under his true colors as a republican instead of fighting under the ensign of a party whose doctrines he repudiates.

Mark Hanna goes on joining things. The latest to acquire him is the Cleveland street railway Employers' association. The first thing Mark knows, he will be forced to become president in spite of himself.

Seven Years in Bed.

"Will wonders never cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, and S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton, drug stores. Only 50 cts.

Healthy Mothers

Few mothers are healthy, because their duties are so exacting. The anxiety of pregnancy, the shock of childbirth, and the care of young children, are severe trials on any woman. But with Wine of Cardui within her grasp, every mother—every woman in the land—can pay the debt of personal health she owes her loved ones. Do you want robust health with all its privileges and pleasures? Wine of Cardui will give it to you.

strengthens the female organs and invigorates weakened functions. For every female ill or weakness it is the best medicine made. Ask your druggist for $1.00 bottle Wine of Cardui, and take no substitute under any circumstances.

Mrs. Edwin Cross, Gomer, Mich.: "When I commenced using Wine of Cardui I was hardly able to walk across the house. Two weeks after I walked half a mile and picked strawberries. When my other child was born I suffered with labor pains 24 hours, and had to raise him on a bottle because I had no milk. After using the Wine during pregnancy this time, I gave birth last month to a baby girl, and was in labor only two hours, with but little pain, and I have plenty of milk. For this great improvement in my health I thank God and Wine of Cardui."
